- 8. Pray for the persecuted church – PRAYING FOR NIGERIA'S GENERAL ELECTIONS Tensions are soaring ahead of Nigeria's General Elections slated for Saturday 16th February. The threat of serious, widespread violence is very real. Two election offices have already been burnt and hate-speech, doctored images and falsehoods are everywhere. Buhari's presidency is widely acknowledged to have been a total disaster. Consequently it is difficult to imagine that a majority will want to give him the second four-year term he craves. It is also difficult to imagine that Buhari would ever concede defeat and appeal for calm; that would be a miracle! If Buhari loses (as is probable), then violence likely will erupt as it did when he lost to Goodluck Jonathon in April 2011, only this time the toll could be much higher. Please pray for Nigeria and for her long-suffering Church.
